

My greatest fear about money is . . .

What is one or two of the best 'money things' that has ever happened to me?

What are one or two of the worst 'money things' to happen to me?

When was I my most content financially?

When was I the most discouraged or afraid financially?

When does money cause me good feelings?

When does money cause me bad feelings?

Something my partner does financially that I like:

What do I want to be different about my financial life 5 years from now? Be specific.
